Did you know?
Edward Bok authored 12 books, including his Pulitzer Prize winning autobiography, The Americanization of Edward Bok.

Did you know?
The Singing Tower took 2 years, 2 months, and 10 days to build - just 5 days longer than the Eiffel Tower.

Blueprint, Plans Elevation Section 313-6. M. B. Medary, Jr., Architect. Apr 22, 1927. Chao Research Center Archives

Photograph of Edward W. Bok, printed on glass. Chao Research Center Archives

Ceremonial Key to the Singing Tower. Created by Samuel Yellin. Wrought iron. On display in the Chao Exhibit Hall.

Sketches for the design of the tile grilles by Enfield Pottery & Tile Works. Chao Research Center Archives

Photograph of Edward W. Bok, printed on glass. Chao Research Center Archives

Ceremonial Key to the Singing Tower. Created by Samuel Yellin. Wrought iron. On display in the Chao Exhibit Hall.

Sketches for the design of the tile grilles by Enfield Pottery & Tile Works. Chao Research Center Archives

Photograph of Edward W. Bok, printed on glass. Chao Research Center Archives

Ceremonial Key to the Singing Tower. Created by Samuel Yellin. Wrought iron. On display in the Chao Exhibit Hall.

Sketches for the design of the tile grilles by Enfield Pottery & Tile Works. Chao Research Center Archives

Photograph of Edward W. Bok, printed on glass. Chao Research Center Archives

Ceremonial Key to the Singing Tower. Created by Samuel Yellin. Wrought iron. On display in the Chao Exhibit Hall.