The Gardens provide for leisurely strolls, enlightening moments, and engaging activities.

Established in 1929 by Edward W. Bok as a gift to the American people, the 80-acre garden was designed by noted landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted, Jr., to be a contemplative and informal woodland setting.

Acres of ferns, palms, oaks and pines fashion a lush backdrop of flowering flora and the spectacular seasonal color of azaleas, camellias and magnolias showcasing an ever-changing work of art. The 205-foot marble and copper Singing Tower is the pinnacle of the gardens with its mosaics, animal carvings, custom ironwork, and daily carillon concert.

Edward Bok created this sanctuary and placed it under the protection of the American people. Bok Tower Gardens is a dynamic, engaging and enjoyable experience for people of all ages. Focal points and activities throughout the Gardens provide for leisurely strolls, enlightening moments, and engaging activities.
